MOTION FOR SANCTIONS FOR PERJURY AND FRAUD UPON THE COURT AGAINST GWENDOLYN ULIJASZ-MCKEMIE

PROPOSED ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR SANCTIONS AND REFERRAL

On this day, the Court considered Petitioner Jason McKemie's Motion for Sanctions and Aggravated Perjury and Fraud Upon the Court Against Gwendolyn Uljasz-McKemie.

After reviewing the Motion, evidence submitted, and applicable law, the Court hereby finds as follows:

- 1. That Respondent Gwendolyn Uljasz-McKemie knowingly presented materially false testimony under oath at the January 7, 2025 hearing;
2. That such testimony was directly contradicted by video evidence already admitted into the record as Exhibit A;
3. That such false testimony contributed to the issuance of a restraining order and materially affected the course of these proceedings.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that:

A. Monetary sanctions in the amount of $25,000 are hereby imposed upon Respondent

Gwendolyn Ulijasz-McKemie, payable directly to Petitioner Jason McKemie, as a remedy for fraud upon the court, abuse of process, and material perjury under oath.

B. These sanctions are not fines or criminal penalties, but civil monetary sanctions imposed pursuant to Tex. R. Civ. P. 215, and are designed to compensate Petitioner for documented legal and financial harm resulting from the false testimony.

C. The matter is referred to the Dallas County District Attorney's Office and the Texas Attorney General's Office for review and investigation of aggravated perjury and fraud upon the court;

D. Gwendolyn Ulijasz-McKemie will be deemed unreliable witnesses for purposes of any future proceedings in this matter;

E. The record of this ruling shall be preserved and available for appellate and oversight review.

F. Petitioner further requests that sanctions be set at an amount sufficient to deter future abuse and proportionate to the financial circumstances of the parties.

G. Respondent currently earns over $1.5 million per year as a consultant. A sanction of $25,000 represents less than one week of income for the Respondent yet would send a clear message that coordinated perjury and fraud upon the court are not without consequence.

H. Lesser sanctions would not deter future misconduct, nor reflect the extraordinary harm caused—including the loss of counsel, medical hardship, and denial of procedural rights that flowed directly from the false testimony already documented and submitted as Exhibit A.

SIGNED this _____ day of June 2025.
